THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From February 11. to February 19. 1735,6.

PARIS, November 9.

WE learn by Letters of the 21ſt paſt, from Italy, that 400 Horſe and 200 Huſſars of the Enemy having taken a Bridge guarded by 300 Men, which we had over the Adage, Marſhal de Noailles ſent a ſeaſonable Succour, which recover'd that Poſt, and purſuing the 600 Germans as far as Verona, they cut moſt of them to pieces in ſight of the Inhabitants who were looking over the Walls.

The Enemy on the Moſelle began on the 29th to move with their whole Army, in order to get Poſſeſſion of the Heights near Treves, and as their firſt Column (which conſiſted of Cavalry) was endeavouring to gain the Village of Bivar, our Artillery made ſuch a terrible Havock amongſt 'em, from Morning till Night, that ſeveral hundreds of 'em were left upon the ſpot. The day following they planted a Battery in the ſaid Village, with intent to favour the Paſſage of their Baggage, whereby they diſmounted ſome of our Guns; at laſt they got up the Heights aforeſaid, which made us apprehenſive their Deſign was to Bombard Treves as they did Spire a Month before; whereupon Marſhal Coigny ſent 'em word that if they fired one Gun againſt Treves, or threw in a Bomb, his Soldiers ſhould plunder the City and reduce it to Aſhes. This Anſwer made them alter their Notes; however, they marched to the Moſelle above Treves, to penetrate into our Country, but we ſtopped them, by ſtopping our ſelves at Conſarbruck. In the mean time a Suſpenſion of Arms was publiſhed at the head of both Armies, on the 15th Inſt. from whence the Troops on both ſides are to retire into winter Quarters. And as a Courier is gone to cauſe the ſame Publication to be made at the head of the Troops in Italy, the Actions are riſen to 1800.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, dated November 12th, N. S.

The Enemy having advanc'd within a ſmall Mile of Treves, by taking Poſſeſſion of the Village, out of which by means of a thick Fogg we made a ſafe Retreat the Day before; our Troops began to be under ſome Apprehenſions for that City, they having made free with the Conduct of our Generals who put it in the Power of the Imperialiſts to ſurprize it; when all on a ſudden the Foggs which for five Days running depriv'd us of the Sight of Heaven and Earth, began to diſappear as an Omen of the good News which Marſhal Coigny received that very Day, being the 5th Inſtant, of a Suſpenſion of Arms, which he immediately communicated to Count Seckendorf, in order to ſettle every Thing relating thereto, and put a ſtop to all Hoſtilities.

The next Day a thouſand Civilities paſs'd between the Officers and Soldiers of both Armies, who Eat, Drank, and rejoyced together as if they were at a Wedding, and now they are to ſtay no longer in the Field than Winter Quarters are aſſign'd them by their reſpective Courts.

The want of Room will not allow us to offer our Remarks upon the Articles, but we may ſay in general, that as they are thought to be diſadvantageous to France and Spain conſidering our late Succeſſes, 'tis the Opinion of moſt of our Politicians, that unleſs Matters are ſoftned in the future Congreſs, the Great Guns will roar with a greater Fury than ever.

London, Nov. 6. Nothing could be more welcome to the French Army on the Moſelle, than the Suſpenſion of Arms, which might be ſaid to have ſaved 'em from Deſtruction; for according to Reports of Deſerters to the Imperial Army, the French were in want of Proviſions for ſeveral Days, without any hopes of Relief, and the brave Seckendorff got Poſſeſſion of an Eminence, from whence he could command their Camp, and force 'em to a Battle, which in all likelihood would have proved as fatal to 'em as that of Hochſtadt.

In the mean while, the Emperor (according to the Holland Male) is ſtripping his Hereditary Countries of Troops in order to have a powerful Army in Spirol, that in caſe the Congreſs gress should not prove successful, he may be in a Condition to attempt the Relief of Mantua. And the Spaniards are re-inforcing all their Garrisons in Lombardy to secure footing there, and cover the Blockade of said City.

Lisbon, October 7. As no Hostilities have been yet committed on the Frontiers of Spain, People are apt to believe that an Accomodation is upon the Carpet between the Courts of Portugal and Madrid; and even a Report was spread, that Admiral Norris is shortly to return to England with the greatest Part of the Fleet under his Command. An End is put to the Search made for the concealed and unregistered Effects which were on board the 12 Ships lately returned from Rio de Janeiro, consisting of Gold and Diamonds, and amounting, as 'tis said, to 10 or 12 Millions of Crusadoes. The Dealers, who were guilty of the Malversation, were all conducted hither, to the Number of 67, and confined in the Jails of this Capital; but the Ships come from Rio de Janeiro, were not yet begun to be unladen.

Madrid, October 19. 'Tis assured, that the King of Portugal has accepted the Mediation of France, jointly with that of the Maritime Powers, to terminate amicably the Differences between that Court and ours. The whole Discourse for some Days past, has been upon the Appearances of an approaching General Pacification. We learn from Cadiz, that Admiral Pintado had received Orders from Court to put to Sea out of Hand with the Flota, for La Vera Cruz, without fixing the Day, which was left to the Choice of the Admiral; 'tis believed that he will depart on the 25th Instant.

From the Camp of Spirebach, Nov. 5.

The first Battalion of the French Guards are to depart the 8th, the rest will soon follow. Our Lines will grow thin; the Suspension being signed, and declared, our Troops will house, and our Officers whip away.

Harwich, Octob. 28. On Sunday 26th Inst. about Two o'Clock in the Morning, his Majesty, on board the Royal Caroline, with the Men of War and Yachts, under the Command of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, anchored in this Harbour, being saluted from Landguard Fort at his passing by; and about Five o'Clock, his Majesty, attended by the Right Hon. Lord Harrington, our Recorder, and the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, and several other Persons of Distinction, landed at this Place, under the Discharge of all the Cannon from on board all the Men of War and Yachts, the Bells ringing and all the Houses Illuminated, and was received at the Water-side by our Mayor (Anthony Deane, Esq;) and Corporation in their Formalities, who by their Steward (Mr. Powell) made the following Speech to his Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, and Capital Burgesses of this your Majesty's loyal Corporation of Harwich, humbly beg leave to express our Joy on your Majesty's safe Retur to your British Dominions, and to return your Majesty our most humble Thanks for honouring us with your Royal Presence.

And we hold ourselves indispensibly bound in this auspicious Moment, to add our Prayers for your Royal Consort the Queen; and that the Regal Authority of these Kingdoms may be forever established in your Majesty and Royal Family, our sure Hopes of Safety, and most valuable Blessing this Nation can wish to enjoy.

Which his Majesty received very graciously; and having declar'd his Intention of making no Stay, immediately walk'd to his Berlin, and proceeded on his Journey for London, being escorted by Part of General Evan's Regiment, which lay here for that Purpose, the General himself also in waiting.

London, Nov. 1. We hear that her Majesty has been pleased to give 100 l. to the Messenger who brought News of his Majesty's safe landing in England.

Thursday at Noon was held a general Court at St. James's, when the Right Honourable Sir William Young, Bart. and Knight of the Bath, Secretary at War, was by his Majesty's Command sworn one of his Majesty's most Hon. Privy Council, and he took the Oaths and his Seat accordingly.

The Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Harcourt and his new married Lady, were last Thursday at Court, to pay their Compliments to his Majesty; Her Ladyship had on a Suit of Embroidery, which, for the Richness of the Pattern, and the Fineness of the Taste, was esteem'd one of the greatest Curiosities ever seen.

Exeter, Nov. 6. Tuesday last being the Anniversary of our Happy Deliverance from Popery and Slavery, by the providencial and seasonable Interposition of that Glorious Hero, King William III. the Loyal and Friendly Society of the Blue and Orange, met as usual and elected the Right Honourable Sir William Yonge, Knight of the Bath, and Bart. their Superior for the Year ensuing; on which Occasion Major Tucker, of the King's own Regiment of Foot commanded by the Hon. Brigadier Barrer, was pleased to compliment the Society with the Company of Grenadiers, who fir'd a Volley at each of the following Healths: His Majesty King George, the Queen and Royal Family, Glorious and Immortal Memory of King William, Prince and Princess of Orange, Success to his Majesty's Mediation, Sir Robert Walpole, Secretaries of State and War, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon, Brigadier Barrell and his Corps, and Sir William Yonge, and the Loyal and Friendly Society of the Blue and Orange. In the Evening the Gentlemen had a Bonfire, Illuminations, and a great Number of Sky Rockets play'd off, when the whole was conducted with the utmost Cheerfulness, Unanimity, and Order.

Boston, Jan. 12. Thursday last was observed as a Day of solemn Prayer and Humiliation with with Fasting, on Account of the unusual and mortal Distemper with which some of the Towns of this Province have been and are visited.

The following is a Paragraph of a Letter to a Merchant in this Town, (by a Ship arrived at Marblehead from Cadiz last Week) bearing Date the 9th of Nov. last.

THE safe arrival of the Brazil Fleet at Lisbon, and the Order for the Departure of this Fleet suddenly, with some other Circumstances, give us room to hope for an Accommodation betwixt the Crowns of Spain and Portugal; and we flatter ourselves that the Maritime Powers will find out measures this Winter for a general Pacification, otherways we may expect a Rupture in the Spring, unless Europe has a mind to let France strike up for a universal Monarchy, which by no means is convenient.

We hear the Committeee of both Houses appointed to consider the Affair of Mr. Plaisted relating to the Manufacturing of Pot-Ash have reported, that Eight Hundred Pounds should be advanced to him on certain Conditions, the better to enable him to go on therein; and that a Grant of 1500 Acres of Land should be given him in case his Proposals succeed, besides such other Reward as the Court may think hereafter the Manufacturer may merit.

PHILADELPHIA, February 19.

Yesterday Morning a poor Woman was found dead at some small Distance from the Town, 'tis suppos'd she perished with Cold the foregoing Night, being seen a little in Liquor when she was about to go home. 'Tis said her Husband died the Summer before last of the excessive Heat.
